Gallery Artist Registration

Conditions of entry for artists

1. Membership

All artists exhibiting or selling work at the Gallery must be financial (paid-up) members of the Edward River Art Society.

2. Pricing and labelling

Artists are responsible for correctly pricing and clearly labelling all artworks and products before they are placed in the Gallery.

3. Ready for sale

All artworks and products must be presented in a saleable condition - properly framed, finished, and/or packaged as appropriate. ERAS reserves the right to remove from display any item that is not, in the Committee's judgement, appropriately framed, finished, or packaged for sale.

4. Stock management

Artists are responsible for maintaining their own stock levels. The Gallery Stock Management Form must be completed every time an artwork or product is added to, or removed from, the Gallery.

5. Commission

ERAS deducts an automatic 20% commission on all sales made through the Gallery.

6. Banking details

Artists are responsible for ensuring their banking and contact details are correct and kept up to date by completing the Gallery Artist Registration Form. ERAS is not responsible for payments delayed or misdirected due to incorrect details supplied by the artist.

7. Collection of artwork

Artists must collect their artwork at the end of the relevant exhibiting period. ERAS is not required to store artwork on behalf of artists and does not take responsibility for uncollected artworks.

8. Risk and liability

While reasonable care is taken, ERAS is a volunteer-run organisation and accepts no responsibility for loss, theft, or damage to artworks or products on Gallery premises. Artists exhibit and sell at their own risk and are encouraged to arrange their own insurance if desired.
